This 2 Day Instructional Coaching Intensive is designed to equip school-based teams to lead the implementation journey of Teaching for Transformation.

Essential Learning Targets

- I can increase my competence through collaboration and expanding my instructional coaching tool box.
- I can nurture my confidence by adapting, designing, and practicing instructional coaching protocols.
- With increased competence and confidence, I can grow in my commitment to lead through the challenges and opportunities of transformational school-wide change.

Workshop Presenters

Amanda Albright is a module coach and a Tft School designer with the CACE network of Tft schools. Beyond her work with CACE, Amanda currently applies her experience within the Deeper Learning movement as a K-12 Instructional Coach at Bellevue Christian School in Bellevue, Washington.

Darryl DeBoer is a co-creator of Teaching for Transformation and, as a Senior CACE Fellow, the project manager for Teaching for Transformation. Beyond his role at CACE, Darryl is the K-12 Director of Learning for Surrey Christian School in beautiful British Columbia, Canada.

Sara Espinoza has been an instructional coach for deeper learning for the past decade and is currently a Tft School Designer for the CACE network of Tft schools. Beyond CACE, Sara serves as a learning leader with ACSI, Edudeo, and the Deeper Learning in Christian Schools network.
